Article 1 The following guidelines (hereinafter referred to as the Guidelines) are established for Office of Library and Information Services (OLIS) to properly administer as well as maintain the laser printers and other printing resources for NDHU's faculty, staff, and students (hereinafter referred to as the NDHU members).

Article 2 All the consumables, repair & maintenance, and consulting services required for using OLIS's printers shall be provided by OLIS.

Article 3 The quota for free printing assigned to each NDHU member each academic year is:

1. 100 pages per person per academic year.
2. Printing 1 page will deduct the quota by 1 page.
3. The validity of the quota per academic year starts from August 1st to July 31st the following year.
4. The entire quota shall be used within the valid period, i.e. unused quota will not be added up to the following academic year.

Article 4 Individual NDHU Email account and password shall be used to log on to computers at Computer Classrooms, and use printers accordingly.

Article 5 The NDHU members shall be responsible for their own accounts. Use of other's accounts without probable causes is prohibited. Once found and verified, any ID thief will be punished in accordance with related regulations, and will be deprived her/his right of using NDHU printing services for an academic year.

Article 6 Once the quota is used up, he/she shall pay at his/her own cost in accordance with the following regulations:

1. A “Base” of 100 pages will cost NT$200. The minimum purchase is one base, no maximum limit.
2. The quota deduction is the same as Article 3.
3. The quota purchased can be used until graduation or job termination.

Article 7 These rules and all amendments are implemented upon ratification by the Administrative Council and approval by the President.
